

MA Modern Indian Studies

120 credits (4 semesters) / rules & regulations 2022

MA in Modern Indian Studies

78 credits

A. 4 compulsory modules:

- a) Interdisciplinary Studies of Modern India I + II
- b) Academic Writing in Modern Indian Studies I + II
(24 credits in 2 semesters)

B. At least 7 interdisciplinary compulsory elective modules in Modern Indian Studies (54 credits)*

- 12 c in a modern Indian language are mandatory (can also be earned in Key Competencies)
- Optional semester abroad at a partner university in India or at another university outside of Germany.

MA in Modern Indian Studies

with study focus

78 credits

A. 4 compulsory modules:

- a) Interdisciplinary Studies of Modern India I+ II
- b) Academic Writing in Modern Indian Studies I + II
(24 credits in 2 semesters)

B. At least 4 interdisciplinary compulsory elective modules in Modern Indian Studies (30 credits)

- 12 c in a modern Indian language are mandatory (can also be earned in Key Competencies)
- Optional semester abroad at a partner university in India or at another university outside of Germany.

C. One out of three study foci:

- a) Development Economics of India
- b) Anthropology of Power
- c) Historical Sociology
(24 credits)

Area of Professionalisation / Key Competencies

12 c

MA thesis

30 credits

MA thesis in the study focus

30 credits