

Reaccrediting the Study Programmes at the SEP – Summer Semester 2024

“Reaccreditation”?

The University is required to regularly review degree programmes: is the programme doable, and can students complete the requirements within a given time frame? Does the programme fit legal requirements? Does it meet the structural target? If so, the study programme is (re-) accredited - it receives an official certificate. If not, the accreditation body requires changes and sees to their implementation before the certificate is granted. For the programme review, students and staff members regularly come together in discussion rounds.

The Story So Far

Since summer semester 2020 the English Department has engaged in a series of discussion rounds, reviewing the degree programmes offered at the Department. By now we have covered all criteria the University expects us to discuss. If you are interested in what we have done so far, and what outcomes this has had, visit our Reaccreditation website – see QR code above or visit <https://s.gwdg.de/tilf0Z> .

Have Your Say!

If you are unhappy (or happy) about your study programme, let us know! If you think we are doing great – or if you think we could improve – , let us know! The review of the degree programmes explicitly wants and needs student input. So come and have your say! This semester the discussion rounds will focus on two aspects that cut across the criteria we have already discussed in previous years.

Welcome and Introduction

12-12.15am

Room: Emmy-Noether-Saal (0.102), Tagungs- und Veranstaltungshaus Alte Mensa / hybrid meeting

Discussion Round 1: COVID-19 and Its Consequences for Teaching and Learning

This discussion round focuses on the consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic in and for teaching and learning.

12.15-1.45pm

Moderation: Prof. Dr. B. Schaff

Room: Hannah-Vogt-Saal (0.101), Tagungs- und Veranstaltungshaus Alte Mensa / hybrid meeting (link will be sent to registered participants)

To register, use QR code right (registration deadline: 15 May 2024, 6pm) or visit the reaccreditation website at <https://s.gwdg.de/tilf0Z>. Please leave a note in the Comments field if you wish to join online.

Discussion Round 2: AI and Its Consequences for Teaching and Learning

This discussion round focuses on the consequences of AI in and for teaching and learning.

2.15-3.45pm

Moderation: Prof. Dr. H. Zeijlstra

Room: Hannah-Vogt-Saal (0.101), Tagungs- und Veranstaltungshaus Alte Mensa / hybrid meeting (link to be sent to registered participants)

To register, use QR code right (registration deadline: 15 May 2024, 6pm) or visit the reaccreditation website at <https://s.gwdg.de/tilf0Z>. Please leave a note in the Comments field if you wish to join online.

Discussion Round 3: Meeting with External Experts (STUDENTS ONLY)

This discussion round is open to students only. Our external experts (one staff member from Tübingen University; someone with an insight into the job market; a student from a university other than Göttingen) wish to gain insights into students' concerns without staff members present.

4.15-c5pm

Moderation: (student representatives)

Room: Hannah-Vogt-Saal (0.101), Tagungs- und Veranstaltungshaus Alte Mensa / hybrid meeting (link to be sent to registered participants)

To register, use QR code right (registration deadline: 15 May 2024, 6pm) or visit the reaccreditation website at <https://s.gwdg.de/tilf0Z>. Please leave a note in the Comments field if you wish to join online.

